

ChangeMakers

At Gilgal

April 23 – 29, 2017 is National Volunteer Week, an opportunity to recognize and thank volunteers who lend their time, talent, voice and support to causes they care about in their community. Their stories can serve to inspire others to find ways to take action that creates change.

Service Unites, the theme for this year's National Volunteer Week, captures the power of ChangeMakers to come together to build stronger, more vibrant communities through service.

GILGAL CHANGEMAKER Charles McCord

Charles McCord is a great example of a Gilgal ChangeMaker. He is our longest serving volunteer, and began his service to Gilgal as one of our initial Board Members.

In the past 12 years, he has taught Bible studies, served as an advisor to the staff, and twice monthly leads a Job Readiness group that prepares our women to find gainful employment!

Charles is pictured here with Yulondor, our March graduate who benefited greatly from his weekly job readiness group.

Thank you Charles for being a ChangeMaker! Changes Happens at Gilgal because you serve! #changehappens #mygilgalstory

We are so grateful for the Volunteers at Gilgal that we will recognize them all month. Join us as we celebrate the many individuals and groups that make Gilgal special for the women we serve.

You can find more stories about our awesome volunteers by visiting our blog at www.changehappensatgilgal.org or by clicking on "Read Gilgal Stories" at www.womenofgilgal.org.
